A CELEBRATION OF CREATION
AN APOSTOLIC VIEW OF IDENTITY AND GENDER
DJ HILL

In A Celebration of Creation, DJ Hill uses his years of experience in youth ministry and extensive research on the topic to provide an Apostolic view of identity and gender. This book both defines gender and gives an outline of gender throughout Scripture. Whether you're a student, young adult, or parent, A Celebration of Creation will not only give answers to important questions, but it will also help you celebrate who God says you are.

BATTLE THE BEAST

DEFEATING THE LIONS THAT OPPOSE YOUR DESTINY
DARIN SARGENT

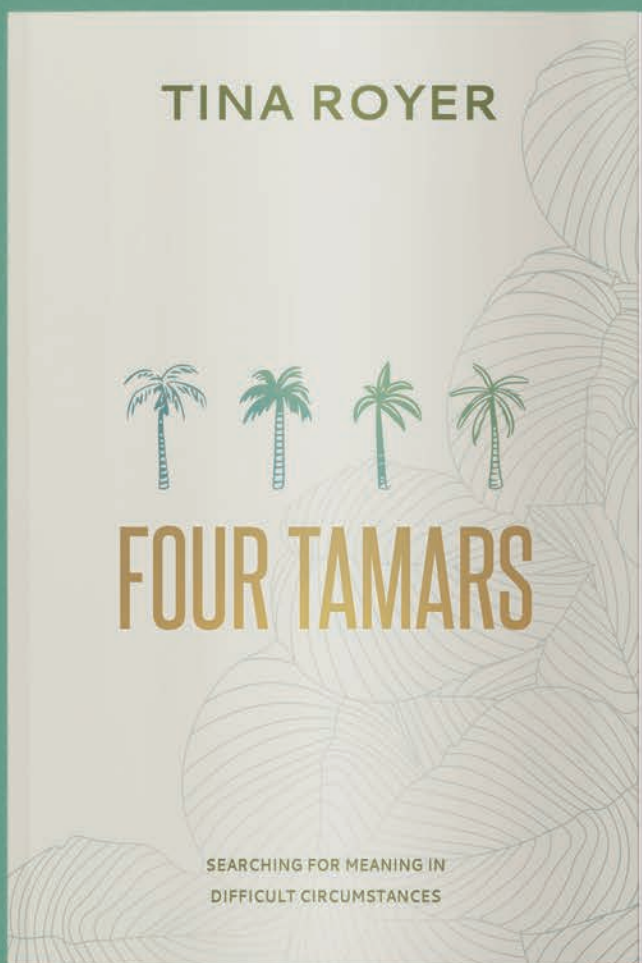

"He [Benaiah] also had gone down and killed a lion in the midst of a pit on a snowy day" (II Samuel 23:20).

What would possess someone to go toe-to-toe with the likes of a lion? We can assume that Benaiah decided to play offense against this potential threat rather than allowing it the opportunity to disrupt his future by preying on things that were most valuable to him. While most of us will never engage in such a battle with a physical beast, we must each ask ourselves how to defeat the internal lions that seek to defeat us—lions such as fear, temptation, unforgiveness, apathy, and impatience. If these lions are left unchecked in our lives, they can become threats to our ability to fulfill our destiny. The stage is set. Get ready to battle the beast.

FOUR TAMARS

SEARCHING FOR MEANING IN DIFFICULT CIRCUMSTANCES
TINA ROYER

What do you do when faced with the unthinkable? How do you find hope in the darkness of overwhelming circumstances?

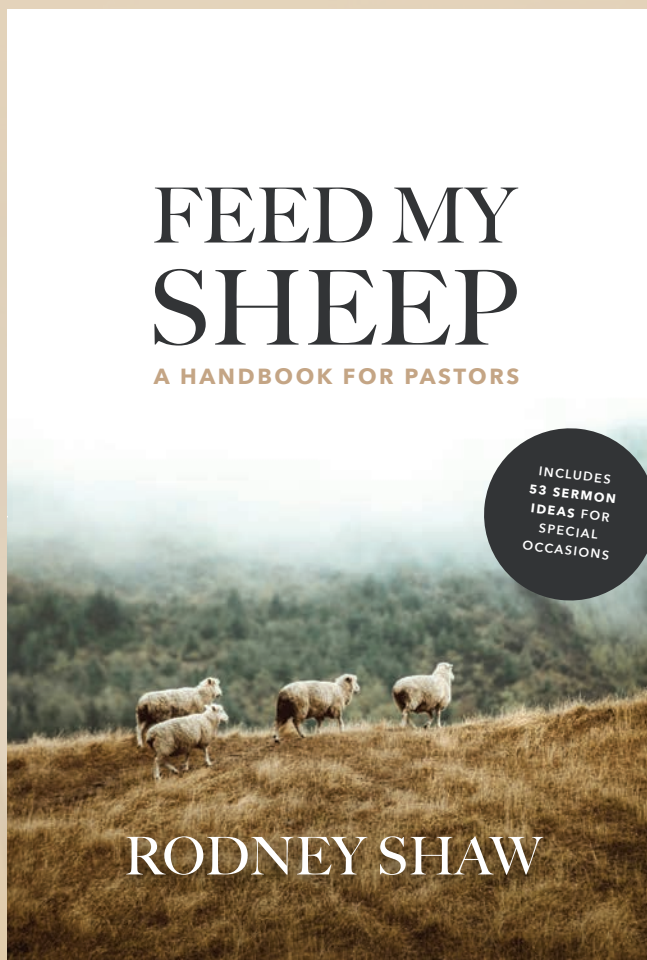

Tina Royer shares her story of walking that road and discovering that the Tamars of Scripture walked it too. The first Tamar we encounter is a story of widowhood and neglect, the second Tamar is an assault survivor, and the third Tamar represents hope. Perhaps it is the fourth tamar, the reference to the strong tree of biblical times, that gives us the assurance that no matter the abuse and darkness of our past, God can transform us into a pillar of strength to help others.

Whether you are looking for hope in difficult circumstances or needing a resource to help you minister to someone who is going through such an experience, this book illustrates the healing that can take place when we put our trust in God.

FEED MY SHEEP

A HANDBOOK FOR PASTORS

RODNEY SHAW

It is a high and holy calling to be entrusted with the care of souls, the flock of God. The pastoral task is all-encompassing and can be overwhelming at times. From phone calls in the middle of the night to the pressure of finances to the burden for souls in a spiritually starved community, the load can seem unbearable. Having a trusted guide to come alongside and speak wisdom in critical moments is like a breath of fresh air. And that's exactly what this book aims to do. The author shares from his extensive personal experience, offering practical insight and strategies.

NEXT LEVEL LEADER

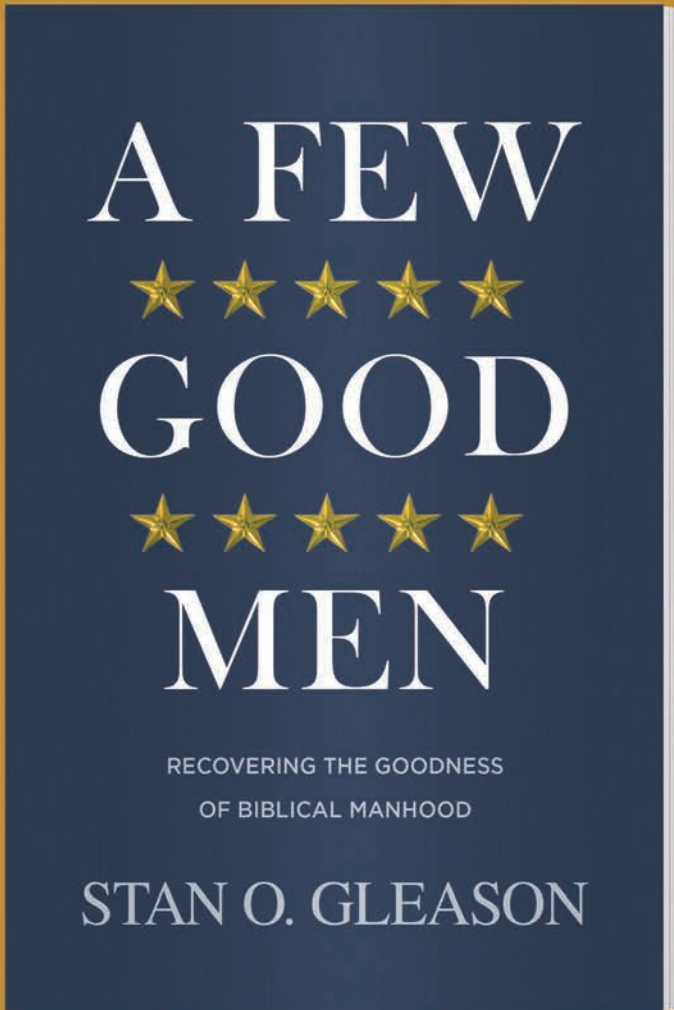

EUGENE WILSON

After reflecting on his own journey, Eugene Wilson tackles key questions by challenging readers to grow key skill sets essential for next-level leaders. He addresses the importance of being stretchable, resilient, and adept at managing chaos. He highlights the value of deferring affirmation, embracing loneliness, and establishing new rhythms. And he delves into relinquishing the need for control and the power of active listening. By mastering these skills and others outlined in this practical, principle-driven book, you will find yourself better equipped not only to lead but to do so at another level.

TELL HER STORY

A HISTORY OF WOMEN IN MISSIONS

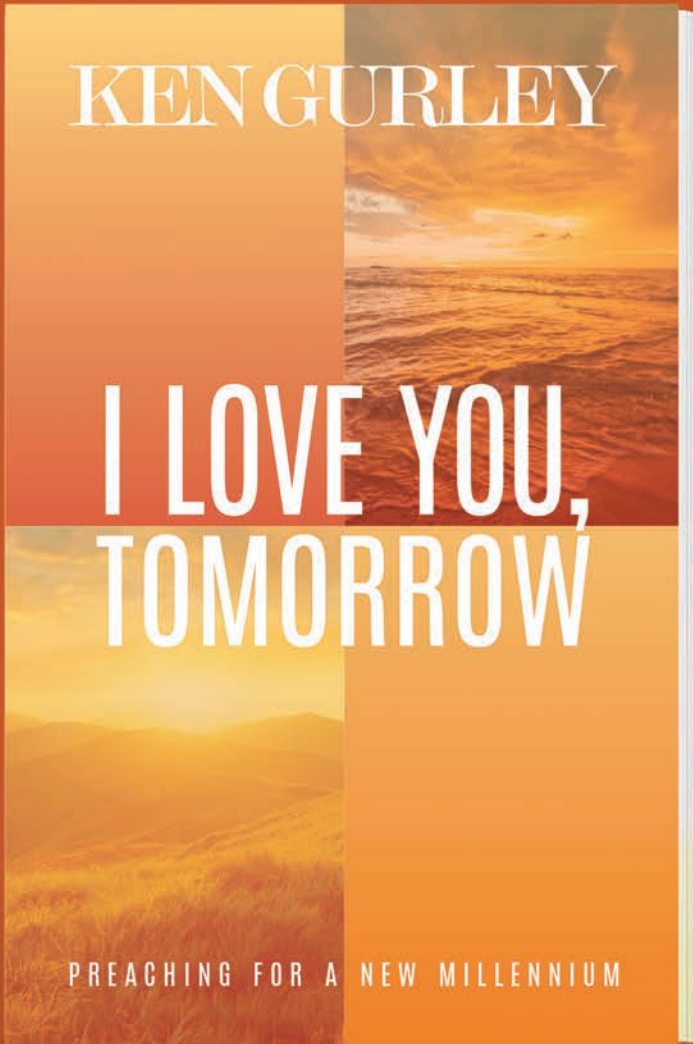

DARLINE ROYER WITH ELIZABETH Z. TURNER

This volume tells the story of fifty-plus female missionaries, all of whom ministered as single women for a period of time. Some of them served for decades on the field, facing unimaginable hardships, pioneering works in unevangelized lands, and superintending national works. This book is essential reading for anyone interested in serving in global missions and for all who want to celebrate what God is doing throughout the world.

GOD'S WORD

FOR LIFE

WINTER 24-25 CURRICULUM OVERVIEW

First, we step into the stable to get a glimpse of the one who came down from His glory to be with us. Then we stand in the Book of Acts to see some of the miracles Jesus worked and still works. Finally, we kneel on level ground with all the redeemed at Calvary to glimpse the cross: the reason God came down from His glory.

SERIES 1: THE MIGHTY GOD IN CHRIST

Highlighting four songs that herald the power and beauty of the mighty God in Christ, this series takes a close look at the doctrine that inspired “It’s All in Him,” “Down from His Glory,” “The Great I Am,” and “Take the Name of Jesus” to help us embrace our Oneness heritage.

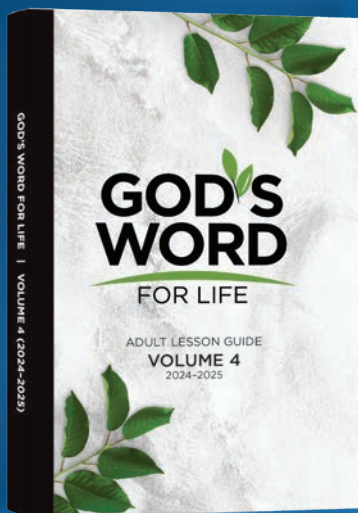

SERIES 2: MIRACLES

Start at the gate of the Temple in Acts 3, and end up with Simon Peter at the door in Acts 12 as you see God work miracles for His newborn church in the Book of Acts. Build your faith to trust God is still able to do what He has done and so much more.

SERIES 3: JESUS, OUR SACRIFICE

After Jesus arrived in Jerusalem, He was betrayed, arrested, forsaken, tried, and crucified. John 18–19 chronicle His final day as He willingly carried His cross to be our sacrifice for our sins, leading participants to understand the basis for salvation.
